

Many Feel Jetport Will Seriously Damage Florida's Everglades

By DILLON GRAHAM
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A leading conservationist says a White House decision is imminent on the controversial jetport at the edge of Everglades National Park in southern Florida.

Thomas L. Kimball, executive director of the National Wildlife Federation, said President Nixon would decide the issue since the Department of Transportation wants the air terminal built while the Department of Interior fears it will harm the park.

Federal approval is necessary for financial aid and designation as an airport for international flights.

Kimball's group, the National Parks Association, Sierra Club, National Audubon Society, and the Wilderness Society say the huge aircraft and the thousands of people who would settle around the airport would ruin the park.

Backers of the jetport 40 miles from Miami see it as one of the major air terminals of the future, a boon to employment and industry.

In the jetport the conservationists see the entire spectrum of pollution: exhaust products; sewage, fertilizer, insecticide runoff; corrupting the water; jet engine noise disturbing the peace of the swamp.

As the conservation groups muster for the latest crunch some runway construction already has started at the 39-square mile jetport site. Presently, the site is called a training facility for commercial pilots.

Kimball said decisions must also be made as to whether an alternate site is available which would cause less damage to the park. If the jetport is to be built, Kimball added, a decision must also be made on what stipulations there could be to help protect the park.

Letters From Public Still Important

By PEGGY SIMPSON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressman who declined to help a pinstriped letterwriter overturn mom's early curfew says mail to legislators still can be an effective force, providing some basic rules are followed.

It was Randy Lee Van Kirk of Elgin, Ariz., who fired off a curfew protest to Rep. Morris K. Udall.

Randy said his mother kept him inside after 5:30 p.m. and "told him if I didn't like it to write my congressman."

The Arizona Democrat, in reply to the boy, wrote: "I'm not sure this is the kind of situation I'm supposed to help people with. Mothers are not always right but they usually try to do what is best for the family."

Udall, a key member of the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, says he reads all his mail and that thoughtful persuasive letters can get results.

Opinions from constituents helped him rethink his position when in 1967 he came out in opposition to the Vietnam war, he recalls.

Udall's advice to letter writers is:

First, address the letter correctly. He still saves a 1962 letter from a small-town police chief which began: "Mr. Morris K. Udall, U.S. senator, Capitol Building, Phoenix, Arizona. Dear Congressman Rhodes."

Make it plain which of the 20,000 bills introduced each year you refer to in your letter. If you don't know the bill number, refer to the subject, such as "gun control" or "truth in lending."

Write in time to do some good — hopefully before a bill is out of committee and passed by the House.

Restrain your impulse to write more than your own representative and senator. Courtesy—and sheer work loads—requires the 435 House members and 100 senators to refer letters to a writer's home district.

Several State Highway Jobs Authorized

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Highway Commission authorized several highway jobs Wednesday, including construction of 6.6 miles in Calhoun County on Arkansas 274 north from Tinsman at an estimated cost of $315,000.

The other jobs programmed included, by county with estimated cost:

SEBASTIAN COUNTY — Resurface 3.4 miles on Arkansas 22 from Arkansas River Bridge to 46th Street in Fort Smith, $74,100.

SEBASTIAN COUNTY — Resurface 4.4 miles from Interstate 540 to Barling on Arkansas 22, $41,900.

SEBASTIAN COUNTY — Approved the beginning of surveys, plans and construction when funds available on construction of 0.8 mile on Arkansas 22T from U.S. 71 east to Interstate 540 and about one mile east from Arkansas 45, $415,000.

SCOTT — Construction of grading, base and minor drainage structures on 6.8 miles of Arkansas 370 from U.S. 71 to the Sebastian County line, $132,000.

CLAY — Resurface 5.33 miles of Arkansas 90 from the Greene County line to Arkansas 90, $55,000.

CLAY — Resurface 4.8 miles on Arkansas 135 from Arkansas 90 to U.S. 62, $50,000.

MONROE — Grading, minor drainage structures, base and surfacing of 4.34 miles on Arkansas 238 from Lee County line west and north, $79,000.

INDEPENDENCE — Resurface 6.13 miles on Arkansas 14 from Stone County line to Locust Grove, $68,000.

POINSETT — Resurface 1.09 miles of Arkansas 325 from Osceola south and west, $26,000.

for the big Tet offensive. He said also the halt of the U.S. bombing of North Vietnam last fall and weather factors over Laos this spring must be considered in any assessment of this year's lowered infiltration.

"We consider these facts to be significant and have said so on several occasions," Press Officer Robert McCloskey said at a State Department briefing.

Called upon to provide some statistical backing for State's position, the Pentagon later would acknowledge only that infiltration is "down considerably" from last year and that enemy strength may have suffered some loss.

But the Pentagon avoided—deliberately, according to sources—embracing the term "significant," and in a three-page statement listed no fewer than eight reasons why the recent infiltration decline may be short-lived.

The Pentagon, differing with State, contended that North Vietnam "is substantially replacing" its losses through the current infiltration rate.

Among factors cited by the Pentagon "that could influence the present lower infiltration rates":

— Fewer infiltrators showed up in South Vietnam this summer because the late spring monsoon season over Laos, a principal infiltration route, made travel difficult on the so-called Ho Chi Minh trail.

— The enemy has needed fewer replacements recently because of its "stand-off" operations.

— The enemy may have made a political decision not to increase his forces but "this decision can be altered at will and on short notice."

The Pentagon also cited such other things as the close proximity of North Vietnamese troops to the Demilitarized Zone and their deployment in border sanctuaries handy to the battlefields, as well as their ability to move rapidly over a travel system improved since the United States stopped bombing the north.

think if I gotta stop every few steps to let my baby brother catch up with me?"

"If you wipe your nose on the sleeve of your sweater, Andrew, Miss Blimpstein will make you drink ink instead of milk for your lunch."

"Now quit blubbering, Andrew. I insist you wear short pants to kindergarten. You look so darling in them. You can have long pants when you start first grade."

"No, you can't take the dog with you... or the cat... or your turtle... or any other pet. You just take yourself, understand?"

"If you're a really good boy, you'll be rewarded. You may be permitted to beat the blackboard erasers."

"Don't let them tease you, Andrew—kindergarten is no worse than a bad case of mumps."

"You don't have to know how to read and write by recess time, Andrew. But if you haven't learned how to by the end of the first day, Miss Blimpstein will send you to the principal's office, and he'll put you in an automatic spanking machine that whacks you 150 times a minute."

Lawyers Are Reassured by Nixon

By BURL OSBORNE
Associated Press Writer
DENVER (AP) — Troubled government lawyers for the poor are being reassured by the Nixon administration that their work will be expanded and will remain free of outside political pressure.

About 100 of the federal anti-poverty agency's attorneys, meeting in Vail, Colo., had voiced their concern in an 11-page telegram to Terry F. Lenzner, appointed July 14 as director of legal services in the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Lenzner said Wednesday the attorneys seemed to have a "feeling of uncertainty concerning the future of legal services and the vigor of the program under a new administration."

En route to the seminar in Vail, Lenzner said in Denver the administration has made it clear in earlier statements that it supports the program, which OEO said served 600,000 clients in fiscal 1969. "It is our intention to greatly expand advocacy programs in the months and years ahead," Lenzner declared.

The attorneys said in their telegram there was a question "whether the present structure for organizing and funding legal services programs is able to assure the independence and integrity essential to aggressive advocacy on behalf of the poor."

Lenzner said a breakdown in communications and a lack of information contributed to the concern. He said the telegram arrived at his Washington office while he was in Mississippi to set up legal services for poor victims of Hurricane Camille and he did not see it until Tuesday.

He said two projects described by the attorneys as facing the imminent possibility of

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A year ago, television producers, writers and stars were excited about messages and meaningful drama. During 1969-70, caution is the byword and the phrase used most often to describe the product is "pure entertainment."

The Establishment, wallowed vigorously last season by TV's bright, earnest young producers and performers, is likely to be treated tenderly. The memory of the Smothers Brothers cancellation by CBS is still painfully fresh in everybody's mind.

New faces, new situation comedies, new variety shows, cute children and winsome dogs will abound. Many shows will have a familiar look because there are only a dozen or so basic plots and not all of them work in series. Commercial television, in a play-safe year, has a tendency to hire specialists with proven track records in old shows to turn out new ones.

Veteran viewers are likely to recall "Route 66" when they see NBC's "Then Came Bronson."

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

MRS. DENNIS RAY PAYNE

Miss Cindy Reese and Dennis Ray Payne were married at 8 p.m. Thursday, August 21, in the First United Methodist church. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Reese of Hope, and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Payne, also of Hope.

Rev. Everett Vinson performed the ceremony.

The new series stars one man on a motorcycle, instead of two in a sport car, but both were shot on location and involved in a new adventure in a different community each week.

Debbie Reynolds' comedy style is not at all like that of Lucille Ball, but if the premise and execution of "The Debbie Reynolds Show" is occasionally reminiscent of "I Love Lucy," it could be the influence of producer-creator Jess Oppenheimer. He was prominent in the birth of the Ball-Arnaz series 18 years ago.

ABC's, CBS's and NBC's new medical shows will inevitably remind one of yesteryear's "Kildare" and "Casey." Cute children have often helped an run-of-the-mill situation comedy into the winners' circle, and in a year when the genre is back in favor, they are present in wholesale quantities. One series, ABC's "The Brady Bunch," has six.

While the approaching season does not appear to contain much experimentation with radical, daring material, some fresh forms around will be offered.

NBC's "My World—And Welcome to It" is based on cartoons, writing and personality of the late James Thurber. It will combine live actors and realistic sets with animation for a first in adult situation comedy.

ABC will partially free itself from the tyranny of the clock in its "Love, American Style." It will drop three or four complete sketches of assorted lengths and with different casts into each weekly hour. The sketches will range from broad comedy to tender sentiment and have one element in common: love.

ABC's "Survivors" will try to transfer a literary form, the novel, to television. The series will be a complete story told in 26 weekly "chapters," a variation of the familiar daytime serial, which begins new story lines while concluding old ones.

ed the double ring ceremony in the sanctuary of the church under an arch of candelabra decorated with greenery. In the background were two spiral candelabra with white tapers. Ivy and pew candles completed the church decor.

Bridesmaids were Miss Janice Harper and Miss Melissa Reese, sister of the bride. Maid of honor was Miss Nancy Reese, also sister of the bride. Attendants' dresses were in harvest colors of willow and gold. The gowns were of Karat and Venice lace, trimmed with touches of velvet, cut in A-line empire silhouette with cadet collars and short puffed sleeves.

Headpieces were made of triple bows in colors to match the gowns and were attached to silk illusion veils. Candlelighters were Miss Debbie Evans of Murfreesboro and Steve Payne, brother of the groom.

Groomsmen were Randy Peek of Center Point and Fred Easterling of Hope. The bride groom's father served as best man.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a Victorian gown with fitted bodice and short puffed sleeves of alencon lace. The beaded see-through yoke was topped with a high lace cadet collar and trimmed with tiny seed pearls. The bell skirt and attached train were of peau de sole trimmed with lace appliques.

The veil was a long single train of imparted silk illusion attached to an alencon covered pillbox accented with medallions of alencon lace.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the Country Club.

Kennedy Will Be Witness, Judge Vows

EDGARTOWN, Mass. (AP)—Judge James A. Boyle was expected to lay the ground rules today for the inquest into the death of Mary Jo Kopechne. One point already was clear—Sen. Edward M. Kennedy will be a witness.

Still to be ruled on were motions filed by lawyers representing persons expected to be called as witnesses at the inquest. The motions dealt with such matters as the right to cross examine and whether statements could be presented in place of oral testimony. Judge Boyle, who will preside at the District Court inquiry scheduled to begin next Wednesday, said he would see to it that the senator was present—“even if he has to be subpoenaed.” “It is essential that Mr. Kennedy be present as a witness,” Judge Boyle said at a preliminary hearing Wednesday.

Kennedy's chief counsel, Robert Clark Jr. of Brockton, assured the court the senator would be present but did not say whether he would testify voluntarily.

Miss Kopechne, 28, died when a car the senator was driving plunged off a bridge into a tidal inlet on Chappaquiddick Island, Martha's Vineyard, July 18.

Massachusetts State Police confirmed Wednesday—after once denying it—a Boston Record American report that a trooper had been assigned to protect Dist. Atty. Edmund Dineen, who called the inquest. “Cpl. Robert Enos has been assigned for personal protection as a result of threatening letters and phone calls to Dist. Atty. Dineen,” the spokesman said. In answer to questions he said he could provide no details of the threats.

Charges Student From Texarkana

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—A University of Arkansas student from Texarkana, Tex., was charged Wednesday with illegal possession of marijuana. Fayetteville police said the charges were filed against Stroud C. Kelley, 20, who was arrested Tuesday. Officers said they found two plastic sacks of marijuana in Kelley's car when he was arrested. They estimated that the two sacks contained about one-third of a pound of marijuana. Kelley was also arrested May 24 in a raid at three off-campus houses and is scheduled to appear in court on that charge in December.

Mets Are Not Taking Lumps Any More

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
It took the New York Mets seven years to recover from the National League's first expansion, but the second one has turned out to be a big hit for them—and Jerry Koosman.

After taking their lumps from the older teams since they came into the league in 1962, the Mets suddenly have become bullies themselves against one of this season's new kids on the block, the San Diego Padres.

With Koosman, who hurled a two-hitter, once again taking advantage of San Diego hitters and embarrassing pitcher Clay Kirby, the Mets rolled to their 11th straight victory over the expansionist Padres Wednesday night.

The 4-1 triumph crept the charging Mets within two games—and even on the all-important loss side—of the sinking Chicago Cubs, the East Division leaders who were beaten by Cincinnati 6-3 in the afternoon for their fourth consecutive defeat.

Cincinnati's victory matched San Francisco's 8-7, 10 inning afternoon verdict over Philadelphia and kept the Reds within a half game and three percentage points of the first-place Giants in the West Division.

Atlanta, a half game and five points back, also kept pace with a 1-0 victory over Pittsburgh, and Los Angeles remained one game behind with a 7-3 triumph over Montreal. Houston, three games back, beat St. Louis 5-1 in 10 innings in the other game.

In the American League, Detroit edged Oakland 2-0, Minnesota tripped Washington 4-2, Baltimore whipped Seattle 7-2, Boston nudged Kansas City 4-3, the New York Yankees trimmed the Chicago White Sox 6-3 and California stopped Cleveland 4-1 in 10 innings.

The Mets, who lost only their first game against the Padres this season bid a sad farewell to San Diego after their sixth straight victory. Koosman, on the other hand, couldn't be sure whether he was more sorry to leave San Diego or Kirby.

Against the rest of the National League's pitchers, Koosman is 0-4-58, but against Kirby he is 3-0-5 after two hits Wednesday night.

Koosman's line single, his first hit in 49 at bats, in the third inning, started a rally that ended in Cleon Jones' two-run double for a 2-1 lead. He beat out a toppler in the seventh. His only other hit this year, off Kirby, was a bunt single.

Kirby, taking his 18th loss against three victories, had other troubles in the sixth when Art Shamsky doubled in a run and scored on Ken Boswell's single.

Koosman, 12-8, and 3-0 against San Diego, yielded only a homer to Ollie Brown and a single to Al Ferrara in the first inning. He beat the Padres 4-1 on six hits during an earlier 11-game Mets' winning streak that brought them alive in May and June and won 3-2 on five hits during their current six-game run—and 12 of 13—that has cut 7½ games off Chicago's lead in two weeks.

The Cubs, losing their third in a row against Cincinnati and seventh in nine games, fell before Alex Johnson's two-run double and solo homer and Lee May's two-run homer.

For the third straight day, the Cubs had the tying runs on base in the ninth inning, but this time reliever Clay Carroll got Ron Santo on a liner with two out and the bases loaded to save the victory for Tony Cloninger, 9-14.

Jim Davenport's pinch-hit single with the bases loaded in the 10th gave San Francisco its seventh consecutive victory after Willie McCovey made it 10 RBI in two days with a two-run single and his 41st homer with a man on, Bobby Bonds also had a two-run homer, his third in two days, and singled and scored the winning run. Willie Davis drove in three runs with two of his three hits as he extended his hitting streak to 24 games, longest in the majors this season, and helped Bill Singer of the Dodgers to his 16th victory and Montreal to its seventh successive loss.

Doug Rader triggered a four-run 10th inning off Bob Gibson, 16-9, with a tie-breaking double for Houston, raising Tom Griffin's record to 9-6.

Record Crowd for the U.S. Tennis Open

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.S. Tennis Open got under way Wednesday before a record opening day crowd of 11,000 at the West Side Tennis Club.

Arthur Ashe Jr., serving with zip, won easily over 19-year-old Dickie Stockton of Garden City, N.Y., 6-2, 6-2, 7-5 and was joined in the second round by his Davis Cup teammates, Clark Graebner and Stan Smith.

Graebner, from New York, whipped Tom Mozer of Sweetwater, Tenn., 6-0, 7-5, 6-2. Smith crushed Patricio Rodriguez of Chile, 6-0, 6-3, 6-2.

The other member of the varsity squad, Bobby Lutz of Los Angeles, lost to third-seeded Tony Roche of Australia 9-11, 6-4, 6-4, 9-7.

The Australians showed their muscle. Rod Laver, seeking his second grand slam, toppled Luis Garcia of Mexico 6-2, 6-4, 6-2. John Newcombe, No. 2 seed breezed past Paul Sullivan of Wayland, Mass., 6-2, 6-2, 6-3.

Ken Rosewall No. 6, struggled to a five-set victory over Peter Cramer of South Africa 6-2, 5-7, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4. Roy Emerson, No. 9, had little trouble with Zeljko Franulovic of Yugoslavia, 6-2, 6-4, 6-3.

Old Pancho Gonzales, 41, beat Bob Potthost of Capetown, Calif., 6-3, 6-3, 6-4.

The women played the first round today. Nine postponed matches were to be resumed in the men's division with a limited number of second round matches.

Lindy's Pride Winner of Hambletonian

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP)—The Lomangino and Antonacci families climaxed a truly great rags-to-riches story when their $15,000 purchase, Lindy's Pride, won the $124,910 Hambletonian Wednesday.

They started out as garbage collectors in Brooklyn and built a hauling and carting empire. Then in 1964 they decided to quit working and go into some form of recreation. They entered harness racing.

Guy Antonacci became president of Lindy Farms of Lindenhurst, N.Y., and Frank Lomangino secretary. Fred, Leo and Joseph Lomangino, brothers, also are in the corporation. So are the Antonacci brothers, Frank and Thomas.

Lindy's Pride, sired by the great Star's Pride, and bought as a yearling at Harrisburg, Pa., earned $82,455 for his victory in the Hambletonian, harness racing's most prestigious stake. The smallest colt boosted his record to six triumphs in 12 starts this season and earnings for two years to $213,601.

The next big target is to complete the triple crown sweep for 3-year-old trotters by winning the Kentucky Futurity in Lexington Oct. 3. Last month, Pride took the first jewel, the $100,000 Yonkers Futurity, and then came the second with a blazing straight heat victory in the 44th Hambletonian.

Howard Beissinger, Pride's 46-year-old driver, won his first appearance in the classic. He never had to touch the colt with the whip, winning the first heat on the perfectly-groomed

Romo Is Very Successful as Starter

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
Vicente Romo is missing again—this time from the Boston Red Sox bullpen.

Romo, the wandering Mexican reliever who disappeared from the club for 36 hours in Chicago a couple of weeks ago, hasn't been back to the bullpen since.

Manager Dick Williams, who decided Romo didn't make enough money to be fined for his AWOL escapade, has turned him into a starter and with good results. The stocky right-hander pitched his first complete game in the majors Wednesday night, beating Kansas City 4-3.

That gave Romo a 2-1 record as a starter for the Red Sox and 5-9 overall. He scattered nine hits and got credit for the victory when Syd O'Brien's two-out bases-loaded single drove in George Scott with the winning run in the bottom of the ninth inning.

In other American League action Wednesday, Detroit blanked Oakland 2-0, Minnesota clipped Washington 4-2, California took Cleveland 4-1 in 10 innings, Baltimore jolted Seattle 7-2 and New York downed Chicago 6-3.

In the National League, Atlanta shut out Pittsburgh 1-0, Cincinnati rapped Chicago 6-3. Houston tripped St. Louis 5-1 in 10 innings, San Francisco nipped Philadelphia 8-7, New York whipped San Diego 4-1 and Los Angeles dumped Montreal 7-3.

Romo left the Red Sox without an explanation on the club's last trip to Chicago. He turned up 1½ days later safe and sound after the Red Sox had called out just about everyone but the Marines to search for him.

The pitcher's explanation was that he had become ill and stayed at a friend's house. Williams docked Romo one day's pay but did not fine him, explaining, "Vicente can't afford a big fine on the salary he's making."

But the manager did spring Romo from the bullpen after his return, and so far the results have been good.

Jerry Adair's leadoff homer in the ninth tied the game for the Royals against Rom, Earlier Pat Kelly had tagged a two-run shot for KC.

But the Red Sox won it for Vicente in the last of the ninth. Scott and Russ Gibson both singled with two out and Dick Schofield, swinging for Romo, walked, loading the bases. Then O'Brien singled Scott home with the deciding run.

Rico Petrocelli had a two-run homer for the Red Sox. Mike Kilkenny, Detroit's rookie left-hander, allowed just three singles and pitched the Tigers past Oakland.

Mickey Stanley and Tom Matchick each drilled a run-scoring single to give Kilkenny 4-4, all the offense he needed against Catfish Hunter, 9-12.

Minnesota rushed four first-inning runs across the plate and Jim Perry made them stand up to beat Washington.

Perry pitched a four-hitter and batterymate John Roseboro singled home two of the Twins' first inning runs. Lee Maye homered for the Senators.

Rick Reichardt slammed a bases-loaded triple in the 10th inning, moving California past Cleveland and beating Sam McDowell, 15-11.

Jim Fregosi tied the score with a leadoff homer in the ninth against McDowell, who, until then, had outduelled Rudy May. One inning later, Hits by Joe Azcue and Sandy Alomar and a walk to Fregosi loaded the bases for Reichardt, who promptly unloaded them.

Frank Robinson hammered his 29th homer and drove in three runs as the Orioles halted their mini-slide by pounding Seattle, Baltimore had dropped four straight before Mike Cuellar set down the Pilots on four hits. It was Cuellar's 18th victory and 15th complete game.

Arkansas Takes Lead With Victory

SHREVEPORT (AP)—Arkansas pushed across an unearned run in the top of the 10th inning Wednesday night to edge Shreveport 5-4 and take a half-game lead over Memphis in the Texas League's Eastern Division race.

Jose Cruz scored the Traveler's winning tally. He singled, moved to second on a fielder's choice, took third on a wild pitch and second on a sacrifice fly by Danny Napoleon.

Winning pitcher, Jim Thompson led off the inning by reaching first on first sacker Adrian Garrett's throwing error. He moved to second on the single by Cruz but was forced on the fielder's choice.

Napoleon's fly would have been the third out of the inning, making the run unearned. The loser was Dale Roberts. Memphis was rained out at San Antonio. In other league action, Dallas-Fort Worth defeated El Paso 4-2 and Amarillo whipped Albuquerque 5-3.

U.S. Amateur Golf Play Led by Melnyk

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
PITTSBURGH (AP)—Concentration is the name of the game over the tough Oakmont Country Club course in the 69th annual U.S. Amateur Golf Championship.

Steve Melnyk, 235-pound belter from the University of Texas who led the way into today's second round with a two stroke advantage, and his two closest pursuers, Marvin "Vinnie" Giles and Rick Jones, agreed on the winning formula.

Giles and Rick Jones, agreed on the winning formula. "You've got to concentrate 18 holes and you don't have a give away-hole on the course," said Melnyk, who shot the only sub-par round Wednesday—36-34-70.

"You go to sleep one hole on this course and you're dead," said Jones. "You can shoot an 85."

The three leaders had to know what they were talking about, since in a field of 150 of the world's top amateurs, 74 scored 80 or above on a par 36-35-71 course. Only one broke par and none equalled it.

Oakmont's 6,670-years, 187 traps and unbelievably fast greens would be laughing if golf courses could laugh.

The sentimental favorite is Giles, the 26-year-old law school graduate who last year finished second for the second straight time, only the third player in 64 years to do so.

Grouped at 73 with North are Don Allen (37-36), Rochester, N.Y., insurance broker; John Farquhar (37-36), Amarillo, Tex.; Jim Rheim (36-37), Tulane medical student, and John Govern (37-36) Hamilton (N.Y.), college player. There are seven deadlocked at 74, and another nine bracketed at 75.

Oilers Hope to Snap the Cowboys' Hold

By SHEILA MORAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Houston Oilers, sporting the best squad in years, hope to snap the Dallas Cowboys' hold on the Texas Pro Championship tonight in a sell-out game at the Astrodome which kicks off a 13-game holiday weekend program.

Coach Wally Lemm warned his Oilers to watch for quick outside and up the middle plays when he learned that the Dallas starting backfield will include Craig Baynham and Les Shy.

"That's their speed backfield," Lemm said.

The Oilers also will have an eye on Cowboy quarterback Craig Morton, who stepped in for retired Don Meredith to direct the multiple formation Dallas attack. It was Morton who came off the bench late in the game the last two years to clinch 30-17 and 33-19 thrillers for the Cowboys.

Both teams have identical 2-1 yards and four touchdowns while pre season records and almost identical rushing records. Dallas has averaged 120 yards on the ground while allowing 86 yards on defense. Houston has averaged 126 yards to its opponents' 86 yards.

Morton has a slight edge over Pete Beathard, the Oilers' rapidly maturing quarterback. In three games, Beathard has completed 35 of 71 passes for 534 yards and hit on 39 of 77 for 561 yards and three touchdowns.

Another grudge game is on tap Friday night when the Kansas City Chiefs, unbeaten in four exhibitions and the hottest team in the American Football League, meet the Cardinals at St. Louis for the Governors' Cup. The Chiefs won the inaugural game last year 13-10 and are favored to repeat.

Kansas City got a 418-yard, four-touchdown performance from quarterback Len Dawson while beating the Los Angeles Rams 42-14 last weekend. Cardinals' quarterback Charlie Johnson managed 15 for 32, 162 yards and one touchdown in the loss to Minnesota, the Cards' first defeat after two victories.

In Saturday's games, the New York Giants (0-2) meet the Philadelphia Eagles (1-1) at Princeton, N.J.; Los Angeles (1-2) is at San Diego (2-1-1); Chicago (2-2) faces Buffalo (1-3) and Green Bay (1-2) takes on Cleveland (2-0-1) in a doubleheader at Cleveland; Miami (0-4) hosts Baltimore (4-0); New Orleans (1-2) entertains Atlanta (2-1), and Cincinnati (1-2) travels to Pittsburgh (1-1).

Pro Charts

By MURRAY OLDERMAN
AFL West: Coastal Division
San Francisco Forty-Niners

PROSPECTUS—Dick Nolan's doing fine organizational job in getting 49ers around to his (and Dallas Cowboys') style of play, particularly on defense. This is squad with lots of potential, lots of good people who need only to believe in themselves. If they can break even with big teams (Colts, Rams), they could be league's biggest surprise.

Dick Nolan

OFFENSE

PASSING—No one's going to supplant old John Brodie, and it's not just because of that big salary he makes. For savvy and dependable passing, he's still man they must lean on. George Mira, in early showing, looks as if he's going backwards, might even yield backup job to Steve Spurrier. Rating—B+.

RECEIVING—Could wind up with two rookies in regular jobs and not be hurt a bit. Ted Kwalick's virtually clinch to squeeze in at tight end; won't even miss retired John Crow. And Gene Washington's already set as wide receiver while Clifton McNeil (NFL leader) plays hard to get (wants more dough). If McNeil's reconciled (and he will be), they'll probably team the two wide. Rating—B+.

RUNNING—Ken Willard sets tempo for big, durable backfield types. Gary Lewis just like him. So's Bill Tucker. Nolan would like to see swift work into that crew, which should give Doug Cunningham chance, but so far he hasn't made it. Long shot is Occidental rookie Gene Moore. But big backs do mean good pass protection. Rating—B.

LINE—Last year's crew is back at old stand, intact, but they'll have to hustle to ward off some youngsters—e.g., even Bruce Bosley, center perennial in 13th season, could yield to Forrest Blue. All-pro Howard Mudd has young Woody Peoples pushing him. Other guard, Elmer Collett, isn't complacent type. Tackles Len Rohde, Cas Banaszek are joined by Earl Edwards (ex-Canadian star). Rating—B.

DEFENSE

LINE—Lot of maneuverability since Bill Belk, Tommy Hart—pair of surprise rookie finds last year—provide flexibility. They could be the ends until Stan Hindman gets over shoulder dislocation. Charley Krueger, Roland Lakes, the vet tackles, have good support of Kevin Hardy, ex-Notre Dame superstar. Rating—B+.

LINEBACKING—Slight frown puckers Nolan because retirement of Matt Hazeltine means he must go with Harold Hays, who couldn't cut it as regular at Dallas (though he knows Nolan system). Dave Wilcox, at strong corner, stocks up with anybody. Ed Beard in middle is steady enough. But they could use help. Rating—B-.

SECONDARY—Built around two great ones at the corners, Jim Johnson and Kermit Alexander. Either or both could be all-pros. QBs don't like to throw in their areas. The safeties, Mel Phillips and Al Randolph, don't have big names, but Coach Nolan, an old defender, is not unhappy with them. Rating—A-.

KICKING—QB Spurrier has virtually taken punting chores from Tommy Davis, though latter continues to ward off Dennis Patera as place-kicker. Rating—B.

Prediction

Third in Coast Division. And that may be low-rating a good team.

Bobcats Have 8 Days Before First Game

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer
With only eight more days till the start of football season, it may be hard for many people to realize the importance of a team's being ready for that important first game.

In the Hope Bobcats' case for 1969, the new season provides a clean slate and another chance to break out of the losing rut which our football teams have become molded into for the past four years.

Some things have been changed for this campaign, however, which hopefully will bring the Cats from the depths of the 4-7-1, 2-8-1, 4-7, and 5-5-1 showings. First of all, the seniors on the squad and even a few of the juniors have been supplying leadership throughout the exhausting two-a-day workouts, maintaining a spirit of enthusiasm unmatched here since the days of 4-AA championships.

Furthermore, the consolidation of Hope High with Yeger High has brought in at least 12 to 15 more players. Some of these newcomers will start, but the others will help provide depth where it is needed.

Since the first day, this squad has been running more wind sprints than in a number of years, and the results should be encouraging when the first full game comes down in the closing moments. Even since donning full pads, the team has kept up the pace in the sprints, which come right after the tiring spread punt workout.

Last year, a big and confident Hope team strode easily into the opener with Ashdown thinking that the Panthers would fall before the Bobcats' feet. It turned out the other way around, as the upset 7-0 win gave Ashdown proper impetus for a 9-3 season and the District 7-A crown.

It is this attitude of overconfidence which has been absent from all sources around the team, including this writer. This hopefully will continue through the season, but rather than pessimism we will refer to it as guarded optimism.

Slandorous Remarks Charged

FORDYCE, Ark. (AP)—A former counselor at the Carthage Public Schools has been charged with making slanderous statements against Carthage School Supt. Irving Bass.

The charges were filed against Clayton Jacobs Jr., prosecutor Frank Wynne of Fordyce said two witnesses presented an affidavit Tuesday saying that Jacobs had accused Bass of taking money from the school district to buy a car and of giving some of the school district's money to a coach.

Civil Rights for Ireland Is Promised

By COLIN FROST
Associated Press Writer

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP)—A leader of Northern Ireland's government reportedly promised wide-ranging civil rights legislation Wednesday night, including equal voting rights for Roman Catholics in local elections.

Minister of Development Roy Bradford was understood to have given this pledge at a dinner to which visiting British Home Secretary James Callaghan invited a dozen persons representing all sides of the religious warfare which has bloodied the province.

A "one-man, one-vote" law for local elections has been one of the chief goals of the pro-Catholic civil rights movement whose campaign so inflamed Protestant militants. Because voting in local elections is based on property taxes and most property is owned by Protestants, the Catholics claim they are not represented on the local councils which hand out many jobs and decide who gets public housing.

Callaghan is the British government minister responsible for internal affairs in the United Kingdom, which includes Northern Ireland. He began a three-day fact finding visit Wednesday.

Crowds of Protestants and Catholics cheered him as he toured areas of Belfast where there was arson, looting and street fighting the week before last.

Callaghan was visiting more riot-torn areas today. He was also to meet with the Rev. Ian Paisley, the firebrand who leads the most militant Protestant faction.

One of Callaghan's first actions was to order a team of British doctors, scientists and technicians into Londonderry's Catholic Bogside district to investigate the effects of the CX tear gas that the police used there during the riots. There have been reports that many of those exposed to the gas two weeks ago, including a number of children, are still suffering from diarrhea, vomiting and abdominal pains.

Callaghan emphasized that he hours each day becoming acquainted with the parts and the use of the sewing machine and sewing tools used in sewing. The greatest part of the week was spent in actually using their tools in making a pin cushion and an apron.

Dolores McBride, Extension Home Economist, conducted the project group and was assisted by Carolyn Haltom, Junior Field Assistant, and Susan McCain, College Work-Study Program Employee.

Commandos From Israel Hit Nile Valley

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Israeli commandos made a hit-and-run raid in Egypt's Nile Valley Wednesday night for the fourth time in 10 months, the Israeli army announced today.

Spokesmen in Tel Aviv said the raiders attacked an Egyptian army headquarters at the village of Man Kabad, 200 miles southwest of the Sinai cease-fire line, with 120mm mortars. The raiders returned to their base without suffering any casualties, the army said.

The commandos mortared the headquarters and other facilities at the post in retaliation for "continuing violation of the cease-fire" by Egyptian forces along the Suez Canal, the announcement said.

Israel did not say how many commandos made the raid, how they reached the target or how much damage they caused. Asyut is 200 miles south of Cairo and halfway between Cairo and the Aswan Dam.

The Egyptians made no announcement of a commando raid, but a military spokesman in Cairo said an Israeli plane dropped bombs near an army training camp near Asyut and was driven off by antiaircraft fire.

"There were no casualties or damage to installations," the spokesman said.

Critical of U.S. Role in Campus Riots

By G. DAVID WALLACE
WASHINGTON (AP)—Some Republican congressmen who toured the nation's colleges last spring say the administration has done little to ease the basic sources of campus ferment.

"The critical urgency of the problem cannot be overstated," the 22 GOP congressmen reported to President Nixon June 17.

And now, Rep. William A. Steiger says:

"I think it's fair to say most of the people who took that tour would tend to say things would still be difficult this year."

The Wisconsin congressman contradicted the assessment of Robert H. Finch, secretary of health, education and welfare, who was quoted last week as saying chances for a quiet year on campuses are very promising.

"I think the tempo of the student demonstrations on Vietnam will pick up this fall," said Rep. R. Lawrence Coughlin of Pennsylvania, one of those who made the spring tour.

Some moves over the summer have been encouraging, representatives of the informal coalition said in interviews, but progress has been slight in alleviating student discontent over basic issues like the draft, their alienation from national politics and the depersonalization of big modern universities.

Even if passions aroused by past issues fade, the congressmen say, the discontent is volatile enough to feed protests over yet unknown issues.

The congressmen's recommendations last June included the establishment of a commission to examine the impact of federal involvement in aid and research programs, the appointment of one man to coordinate federal youth programs and expansion of student involvement in federal programs through a national youth foundation and student teacher corps.

"I don't see any really concrete steps by the administration," said Coughlin.

HOPE NEWSPAPER HISTORY:
The 1929 consolidation joined the two principal newspaper lines dating back to within five years of Hope's incorporation in 1875.

1899—Star of Hope founded as a weekly by Claude Mc-Corkle; converted to an evening daily by his son, Ed. McCorkle, publishing until the 1929 consolidation.

The opposition line:
1880—Hope News founded by Lowry Brothers.

1883—Sold to Withers & Johnson, name changed to Hope Telegraph.

1883—Later in same year resold to Claude McCorkle and renamed Hope Mercury.

1884—Sold to James H. Betts, who named it Hope Gazette, under which name it was published continuously until 1922, published by
Betts, J.L. Tullis, and Col. W.W.
Folsom the last-named dying in 1916.

1916—Purkins & Gates bought the weekly Gazette and made it a companion paper to their new daily, Arkansas Evening Herald
—but both papers suspended in 1922.

1926—Plant was revived by Curtis Cannon as the weekly
Hempstead County Review.

1927—Cannon sold plant to D.A. Gean, who established the morning Hope Daily Press.

1929—C.E. Palmer and A.H.
Washburn consolidated The Star and the Press as Hope Star, with Palmer as president and Washburn secretary-treasurer.

1957—Following Mr. Palmer's death Mrs. Palmer became president.

1969—With Mrs. Palmer's retirement from Star Publishing Co. Washburn became 76 per cent owner and president —balance 24 per cent being held by Texarkana Newspapers, Inc.

Once a partnership has committed itself to going to game all bids below game are forcing. This makes it possible to gather extra information about your partner's hand and to explore slam possibilities before settling past the game level.

North and South deserve little credit for getting to seven spades and even less for making all 13 tricks. They could also have made seven no-trump if they had bid that grand slam.

They deserve little credit yet when the hand was played in a sectional tournament, almost half the pairs failed to get to the grand slam and only one or two managed to reach game.

South's jump to two spades made life easy for North. He might have gone right into a Blackwood routine but North was in no hurry. He wanted to find out a trifle more about his partner's hand pattern so he temporized with a mere raise to three spades.

South could do no more than continue to four spades. He had a minimum for his two spade jump response with good spades.

At the same time the spade rebid gave North all the information he needed to be able to take full control by means of Blackwood. North held the perfect Blackwood hand with first- or second-round control of all suits.

When South replied with five spades to show three aces North saw no reason to waste time checking for kings. He simply bid the grand slam.

He did have one slight worry. South might show up with three little diamonds. When dummy hit the table South announced, "Drawing trumps," and spread his hand.

DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

'Burning Feet' Ailment Is of Varied Origin

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—What is the cause and treatment of a burning sensation in my feet? I don't have athlete's foot? I have taken vitamins and other medicines but nothing has helped.

A—Possible causes of your trouble are hardening of the arteries, excessive use of alcohol or tobacco, Raynaud's disease, frostbite, tight shoes or a deficiency of vitamin B. If your doctor can identify the cause, he may be able to direct his treatment to its removal. Otherwise, he may want to try a treatment that has been used with great success in Great Britain and has recently been introduced in this country—the injection of an ice-cold saline solution into the spinal canal.

Q—My husband has metatarsalgia. None of the treatments he has tried have helped him. What do you recommend?

A—This painful condition is caused by the pinching of a nerve in the region of a metatarsal joint. It is often the result of wearing poorly fitted shoes. In the early stages removing the shoes and gently massaging the joint gives relief. When the condition is of long standing the only treatment is surgical removal of the irritated nerve or the joint itself.

Q—I have a painful callus on my heel. A foot doctor treats it but the relief lasts only a week or two. Isn't there any permanent cure?

A—Your callus is caused by improperly fitted shoes. High heels are often an added factor. The callus will continue to bother you until you get shoes that fit your feet. After that, it should gradually disappear. You are wise not to try to pare the callus yourself as this is an invitation to infection.

But the taxpayers getting the benefit of the "up to" figure would be those at very high income levels—around $200,000, in most cases. For those with taxable incomes of $8,000 to $12,000, the rate cut is likely to be 1 per cent. That is, the rate in this bracket would be reduced from 22 per cent to 21 per cent.

Someone, certainly, is going to get the benefit of lower tax bills under the House version of tax reform, since it's estimated that Uncle would pocket some $9 billion less in tax collections by 1972. It appears, however, that certain categories of taxpayers may not pocket as much in savings as they're hoping for.

Such inequalities as now exist may well be eliminated in the months ahead, before tax reform emerges in its final version. Meanwhile, maybe you should give second thought to any plans you have for buying a mink coat for mama with your tax savings. How about a nice scarf, instead?

SHORT RIBS

For example, a home buyer who obtains an $18,000 mortgage loan at today's interest rates will pay out around $1,250 in interest during his first year of repayment. Add on his real estate taxes, his sales tax, state income tax and he's probably over $2,000 in itemized deductions even before he gets to the miscellaneous items. Lifting the standard deduction to $2,000 is going to do very little for this taxpayer.

Some House members pointed out, in fact, that it would result in no tax relief for home-owner families with two children, in income levels between roughly $7,300

PERSONAL FINANCE

By CARLTON SMITH and RICHARD PUTNAM PRATT

How much more spendable income is the family going to have as a result of the tax reform bill that's now in the works? How many dollars, that is, will go into your pocket instead of into the tax collector's?

That depends on which family we're talking about, of course—but for the typical, middle-income, home-owning family, the tax saving is likely to be considerably less than all the joyful news about "tax relief" has led you to believe.

There won't be any hard answers until the end of the year—some time in November, at the earliest—after the Senate has had its say about the bill passed by the House. Even now it's safe to predict that tax relief there will certainly be, particularly for low-income families who can barely keep a roof over their heads, much less pay substantial tax bills.

Lowered tax bills for middle-income families would result, presumably, mainly from two features of the tax bill as drafted:

First, the standard deduction would be liberalized. Now you're limited to 10 per cent of your income, with $1,000 as the maximum. That would be increased (in a series of steps to 1972) to 15 per cent or a maximum $2,000.

Being able to knock off an extra $1,000 from the amount of income you pay tax on sounds like joyful news until you take a look at the actual effect on many home-owning families.

For example, a home buyer who obtains an $18,000 mortgage loan at today's interest rates will pay out around $1,250 in interest during his first year of repayment. Add on his real estate taxes, his sales tax, state income tax and he's probably over $2,000 in itemized deductions even before he gets to the miscellaneous items. Lifting the standard deduction to $2,000 is going to do very little for this taxpayer.

QUICK QUIZ

Q—What is the design of the Richard Nixon inaugural medal?

A—The obverse design is the sculptured head of the President. The reverse shows the Great Seal of the United States. The seal is in the crell pattern embroidered by Julie Nixon for her father before the election. It includes her inscription, "To RN-JN."

Q—How does the captain of a ship summon attention of the crew?

A—With the three words, "Now hear this."

MATING GAME IS WAITING GAME FOR HER.

Dear Helen: My 25 year-old sister keeps setting dates for when she and her "fiance" will be married, but the day comes, and there's always a terribly good reason why it must be put off again. She has been going with him five years. He never men-

New Roles for Atomic Energy Predicted

Associated Press Writer WASHINGTON (AP) — Atomic energy may play such diverse roles in the future as power for planetary grand tour and an artificial heart, Congress has been told.

The idea of implanting a tiny nuclear engine in the body to power an artificial heart is hypothetical, but worth looking into since heart disease kills some 750,000 Americans a year, says the director of the Atomic Energy Commission's isotopes development section.

E. Eugene Fowler estimates such heart research would take about four years and $5.5 million.

The commission's director of space nuclear systems, Milton Klein, in arguing for funding of the nuclear research on project Nerva, said atomic engines will be a must for deep space flight.

The testimony of both men before House appropriations subcommittees in May was released Tuesday.

The urgency of finding a practical power supply for an artificial heart, said Fowler, was demonstrated last year in Dr. Denton Cohen's effort to keep a patient alive in Houston, Tex.

The artificial heart Cooley used needed a power supply system the size of an office desk.

Possibly, Fowler said, a nuclear engine weighing a few pounds could substitute, being implanted in the body.

As for space travel, Klein said, "We are moving into needs for very long life systems." A trip to Jupiter takes two years. A grand tour in the late 1970's when all the planets are in a favorable alignment would take seven to eleven years.

Klein said a desk-size Nerva atomic engine would produce as much power as Hoover Dam. Nerva would speed travel and make rescue of the vehicles possible. In comparison, the total weight of a Saturn booster is 6 million pounds, 5 million of which is chemical propellant.

As for space versus domestic priorities, Klein said, "The real long-term solutions to the problems of poverty, which are real... is to increase our ability to produce and do things better."

"The space program serves as the cutting edge of technology," Klein said.

tions marriage around us. I know he borrows money from her and doesn't pay it back. She also paid for half his car—and it's in his name. She spends all her spare time at his apartment. In fact she does his cleaning and washing—even buys things for it.

About a dozen wedding dates have been "postponed" now. Who does she think she's fooling?—KID SISTER

Dear Sister: ...Herself!—H. Dear Helen: They say this is an enlightened age, but still the phrase, "it's not ladylike" pops up at every turn. Girls aren't supposed to go out unescorted, ride cycles, sit at bars. If a guy dates around a lot, he's a Big Man, but if a girl has several boy friends, she's talked about.

I get "It's not feminine" even if I sit or walk the way I want to. I'm girlish, but who wants to be prissy?

Men have their own magazines, but girls must be satisfied with those house and garden things. A "woman's magazine" is definitely not Playboy! If we peak at the center fold, there again, "It's not ladylike."

I'd rather go to Vietnam than live knowing we're only alive to make men happy, while they downgrade us as second class citizens. — SICK OF FEMININITY, PENNSYLVANIA

Dear Sick: I might have agreed with you 30 years ago, but the times they are a'changing. Evidently your folks—or your town—haven't noticed. Come to California, Luv, where girls are definitely NOT second class citizens!—H.

Dear Helen: Do you ever really, get over a lost love, especially if its your first love? It seems to me, losing someone you love is kind of like having a leg amputated. You can find a substitute, but will never be quite the same. And if you aren't very strong, you may need a crutch all your life. Part of you will always be gone.—SAD

Dear Sad: I'd say losing a love is more like losing an important race. You will always remember the fun of competition, the bitterness of defeat—but who knows, the next race may be better. And someday you may look back on that first try as pretty small stuff.—H.

Atlantic Coast Teams Have a Major Problem

By KEN ALTYA
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — More than 100 starters from last season are sprinkled among the eight Atlantic Coast Conference football teams—but only two are quarterbacks.
That statistic underscores a major problem confronting a majority of the coaches as they prepare for the 17th ACC season. The only quarterbacks of proven ability are Leo Hart of Duke and Tommy Suggs of South Carolina.
Each was a scintillating sophomore last fall and this year they have enough help to seriously challenge defending champion North Carolina State's bid to retain the title.
Hart was No. 6 nationally on total offense with 2,340 yards as he accounted for 14 of 34 school and conference records. Coach Tom Harp, never better than 5-5 in three years at Duke, calls Hart "the best quarterback I've ever coached" and is looking for him and his talented receivers, more good running backs and "a whole lot more speed" to make Duke a factor in the race.
Harp's chief chore is filling spots in the interior offensive and defensive lines.
It's been 10 years since South Carolina won as many as six games, but Coach Paul Dietzel starts his fourth year with high hopes for the Gamecocks. The prize among 30 lettermen, 17 starters, is the stubby Suggs. The 5-foot-9, 180-pounder rewrote the school record book last year, passing for 1,544 yards and 13 touchdowns. Included were five TDs against Virginia and 324 passing yards against Florida State.
Injuries hampered senior fullback Warren Muir and split end Fred Zeigler last year, but they're whole again. Inexperience at middle guard and in the defensive backfield are cause for concern.
Earle Edwards has finished 1-2 eight times in 15 years at North Carolina State. In the last six years he hasn't been worse than second, winning two titles outright and tying for two more.
Ron Carpenter, a 250-pound senior tackle, heads a veteran defensive team that Edwards says will have to balance the Wolfpack losses on offense. Junior Darrell Moody, who was in on only 52 plays as a backup man last year, is the quarterback. The red-shirted 1967 freshman team will fill some holes, most pressing of which are at offensive and defensive end, cornerback, fullback and center.
Clemson, operating on an early calendar, is in the second week of practice, but Coach Frank Howard still hasn't named a No. 1 quarterback. Starting his 30th year as Tiger boss, Howard has such offensive gems as fullback Ray Yauger and flanker Charlie Waters, but four untried hands are scrambling for the quarterback job. The intrioffensive line also lacks experience.
Bill Dooley begins his third year with a 5-15 record at North Carolina. He says his Tar Heels will be "improved and exciting," but adds that the squad has only seven seniors. Seven offensive starters must be replaced, including quarterback, where junior Ricky Lanker and three sophomores are being tested. Virginia's 7-3 record last sea-

FAMILY REUNION
On Saturday August 23, 1968, the Washington family held a reunion at the home of Mrs. Ester Williams, 709 South Laurel street, with approximately seventy persons attending. Prayer was offered by Clodie Washington; a paper was read by Mrs. Pollyanna Wyatt Maxwell. The menu was bar-b-que pork, baked beans, potato salad, and cold drinks. After dinner, the family assembled to take pictures. Two daughters, one son, four grandchildren, sixteen great grandchildren, and one great-great grandchild were present. Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Hosea Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jones and family, and Mrs. Odie Mea Nelson of Chicago, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hookins and family and Willie Williams of Kansas City, Missouri; Misses Mary and Shirley Williams of Little Rock, Arkansas; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Perry and two sons of Zwolle, Louisiana; and Mr. and Mrs. Lacy Jones of Texarkana, Texas.

Big Eight to Be Another Close One

By LEW FERGUSON
KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Big Eight Conference spawned three major football bowl teams in 1968 and didn't have its league race settled until the last day of November—when most college teams have packed away their gear.
If anything, an even more hectic situation is expected in 1969.

No less than five teams are accorded a shot at the Big Eight championship and nobody will be surprised if the conference lands teams in three more bowls in December and January. Such has the level of the conference's brand of football risen in recent years.

Once known as Oklahoma and the Seven Dwarfs, the Big Eight has achieved the balance so long sought.

Oklahoma, again, will be rugged. But so will Missouri, which thrashed Alabama in the Gator Bowl, 35-10, last December and Kansas, which tied the Sooners for the Big Eight championship and then lost 15-14 to Penn State in the Orange Bowl. And Nebraska and Colorado are not being counted out of anything.

Rapidly-rising on the football scene are Kansas State and Iowa State. Both once were conference doormats, but now are regarded as brash, young upstarts under the dynamic coaching of Vince Gibson and Johnny Majors.

Oklahoma State, which starts another attempt at a five-year program under new coach Floyd Gass, is the only team not generally recognized as a possible title threat. Oklahoma, which came roaring down the stretch to cut down Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska and Oklahoma State and claim a share of the 1968 title with the Jayhawks, returns tailback Steve Owens. That in itself makes the Sooners a contender.

Owens heads into his senior season with a good chance of becoming the top ground gainer in collegiate football history. A prime contender for theisman Trophy, Owens needs just 1,045 yards to crack Eugene "Mercury" Morris' career rushing record of 3,388 yards and 19 touchdowns and break Glen Davis' scoring record of 51 touchdowns.

The Sooners also return Steve Zabel—considered by many the Big Eight's finest football player—who can play tight end or defensive end and center Ken Mendenhall. In addition, quarterback Jack Mildren, flanker Roy Bell and end Bruce Deloney are up from a freshman team that was 4-0 and outscored its opponents 194-66.

Kansas suffered heaviest graduation losses, but those may be crocodile tears being shed by coach Pepper Rodgers. He returns fullback John Riggin, who gained more yardage as a sophomore last year than did Owens in his first year, center Dale Evans and end John Mosier on offense, plus Emery Hicks and Karl Salb on defense.

The Jayhawks also will unveil Ron Jessie, a trackman transfer from a California junior college who is being likened to O.J. Simpson.

Missouri coach Dan Devine probably has the toughest rebuilding job—on defense where Devine wants things the tightest. But he gets back tackles Rocky Wallace and Mark Kuhlman and back Butch Davis. The tigers' offense looks solid with Terry McMillan and a host of runners.

All-everything quarterback Bob Anderson returns to spearhead Colorado, but that's the problem position at Nebraska where Bob Devaney hopes sophomore Van Brownson can do the job.

Williams and family of Haynesville, Louisiana, her uncle, James Washington of Las Vegas, Nevada, another aunt, Mrs. Josie Rhinehart of Grant, Oklahoma, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clodie Washington of Hope.

Table setting and serving were done by Dora Williams and Helen Muldrow.

We See a Copy of 'Footprints on Moon,' Fisherman's Reply

"Footprints on the Moon," the Associated Press' new book on adventure in space, has reached 160,000 sales, our trade magazine, Editor & Publisher, reports from New York. The magazine quotes Dan Perkes, AP Newsfeatures general editor, as saying book orders are coming in at the rate of 35,000 a week.

Of the AP membership 778 papers, including The Star, are promoting the sale. The book sells for $5. Orders should be sent directly to the address given in the coupon in the advertising which is running once or twice a week in The Star. Checks must be made out to the Associated Press.

The Star has received its "house copy" of "Footprints on the Moon." One inspection will tell you it is a quality production. It's more than merely the story of the moon landing — it's the authentic account of America's and Russia's space explorations — from the beginning down to the historic moment when Man finally set foot on the moon. There are 150 pictures — all in color.

Here's a personal note: The books lists as its project director Keith Fuller, assistant general manager of the Associated Press. Not so many years ago Mr. Fuller was a house guest at my home. He was then bureau chief for the AP at Little Rock. He had come up from the same post at New Orleans. From Little Rock he was transferred to Denver — and from Denver he drew the great promotion to the AP home office in New York.

Rejoinder to this column's comments on the Ananias Club Aug. 26:

Editor The Star: May I congratulate you upon your journalistic endeavor of August 26 in which you take the names of Captain Bob Peterson and myself in vain?

Many good things come from evil intent, however, as witness these facts:

1. That your article persuaded this reader to go to the Bible to read the Book of Acts, Chapter Five.
2. A latency in your journalistic talents has been revealed to the world.
3. That a newspaperman, born as he is, with a "question mark" in his eye, is no fit personage for membership in the Ananias Club.
4. We now know it must have been a member of the Fourth Estate who first questioned the story of Cadmus.

See you at the next Ananias meeting. Fraternally,
ARTHUR STRECH

Hearing Set for 10 Charged at Benton

BENTON, Ark. (AP) — The cases of the 10 persons indicted in the death of a Negro youth here Aug. 17 are scheduled to be heard at the March term of the Saline County Circuit Court.

The indictments were returned Tuesday by the Saline County Grand Jury and Sheriff Guy Grant said Wednesday that all but two of the 10 had been arrested.

He said two Negroes, Edward Coutee and his brother, Donald Coutee, had been charged with unlawful assembly to riot. Grant said the brothers were in Indiana.

The indictments were returned in the death of Leonard Williams, 19, a Negro, who authorities say was shot and run over at a drive-in restaurant in Benton.

Roscoe Smith, owner of the restaurant, was charged in the indictments with contributing to the delinquency of a minor. Two white youths — Denver Witham and Jerry Thornberry — were charged with manslaughter and two others — Charlie Wood and Jackie Stucky — were charged with unlawful assembly to riot. All four were arrested and released on bond.

Infiltration Drop Spawns Big Argument

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon said today North Vietnam sent about 100,000 troops into South Vietnam during the first half of this year, enough to "substantially replace" enemy combat losses.

The Pentagon figured enemy killed during that period at 93,653 but said that loss would be expanded when prisoners, wounded and defections are added in.

It was the first time in months that the Defense Department has released infiltration figures and came at a time when the Pentagon was seeking to play down the idea that it stands in sharp disagreement with the State Department over the significance of a recent infiltration decline.

Defense spokesman Jerry Friedheim, asserting that there is no disagreement, said both agencies agree that infiltration is lower this year and that there may be a decline of enemy strength in South Vietnam as a result.

But whereas the State Department said it viewed the development as "significant," Friedheim said: "We interpret this cautiously."

Friedheim said the 100,000-man infiltration figure for the first half of 1969 is half the infiltration figure for the corresponding period in 1968, but he said any comparison of the two figures "must be made cautiously" because of special factors which existed last year.

Among these, Friedheim said, are the fact that in early 1968 North Vietnam was preparing for the INFLTRATION (on page two)

Construction Jobs in Pittsburgh Suspended by Negro Protests

By JACK COTTER
Associated Press Writer
PITTSBURGH (AP) — A bitter struggle to win more jobs for blacks in the construction industry moves from the street to the conference table today.

Owners of 10 major projects involving more than $200 million, targets of three days of angry protests by hundreds of black and white demonstrators, agreed Wednesday night to suspend operations until next Tuesday.

The move was hailed as a victory by leaders of the Black Construction Coalition, which called the demonstrations to force an increase in the two percent Negro membership share among the city's 30,000 trade unionists. Byrd Brown, a coalition leader, said of the protest: "It has been a qualified success. We began the demonstrations to bring construction to a halt and to force the Master Builders' Association and the trade unions council to negotiate."

"But we still have no black people working on these jobs, and until we do it won't be a complete success."

During the three days of demonstrations in downtown streets, more than 225 persons were arrested and 35 demonstrators and 12 policemen were injured.

Brown, chairman of the Pittsburgh chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, appeared on television with Mayor Joseph Barr to make the announcement.

Brown had been released 15 minutes earlier from jail, where he was taken after being arrested during Wednesday's demonstrations.

Barr said the decision, reached during an emergency meeting of owners in his office, was made to prevent further disruption and violence, and to open negotiations between the builders and unions and the Black Construction Coalition.

"It is imperative that negotiations continue and that an agreement satisfactory to all parties be reached so that order can be restored to this community," Barr said.

The mayor, whose office had released figures showing Negroes made up two percent of trade union members, called the Black Coalition cause "right."

Last week, the Master Builders' Association and the Trade Unions Council announced plans to train 80 to 100 blacks as apprentices.

The proposal was rejected by coalition leaders, who claimed they were not consulted.

Student Gets $500 Grant for College

Recently Miss Mercedes Smith was named the recipient of a $500 check which represents a Lehman Fund Grant to finance in part, her study during the year 1969-70 at the University of Arkansas. This is the second year that she has received this grant. The renewal is based on her academic achievement at the University.

Meredes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.B. Smith, 821 Berry Street, Hope. She is a 1968 graduate of Yeger High School and presently is a sophomore at the University of Arkansas.

The Herbert Lehman Education Fund was established in 1964. Its purpose is to promote goodwill and understanding through education by providing scholarships and financial assistance to students who enter recently desegregated and public supported colleges and universities in the deep South.

Some Remarks a Young Kindergarten Prospect Gets Tired of Hearing

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks that a young man preparing to start kindergarten gets tired of hearing:

"I don't know why you feel you have to lead him by the hand to class the first day, Madge. After all, Andrew is not exactly a baby any longer."

"I hear you're going to have Miss Blimpstein as your teacher. Boy, that old girl is a tiger. I had her myself when I was in kindergarten. At the end of the year three of us kids were missing, and everybody figured she ate them."

"What's all the fuss about anyway? Andrew isn't going to the moon—he's just starting kindergarten."

"Don't worry so much, kid. Even if you weather kindergarten, you still have 16 more years to go before you'll get out of college."

"Don't let him pull any fake illness on you, Madge. Whether he claims he has a fever or a bellyache, I want him in that kindergarten seat when the bell rings."

"I understand that that little bully in the next block is going to be in the same kindergarten class with you, Andrew. Don't let him knock all your front teeth out."

"If you aren't polite to all the little girls, Andrew, Miss Blimpstein will make you stand in the corner and let them throw spitballs at you."

"You'll get to do all kinds of fascinating things, Andrew — such as galloping around the room to music, cutting out dolls, and learning to draw and color little white lambs in green grass."

"What do you mean you think you'll drive him to school every day, Madge? You'll not only spoil him—you'll stunt his growth. Let him walk. It'll do him good."

"Moan, I'm not going to have Andrew tagging along after me to school every day. What'll the other guys in the third grade See SOME REMARKS (on page two)

Industrial Fund Goal Reaches Third of Mark

A check up meeting of the Hempstead County Industrial Foundation Fund Drive was held Tuesday, August 26 at the Hope Chamber of Commerce office with reports on hand from the teams present.

Approximately one third of the goal of $25,000 had been reached. Chairman Thomas Ed Hays, Jr. urged the teams to attempt to call on every prospect since Hope was visited Wednesday afternoon by an industry in search of forty acres and 200 to 250 employees.

The Hempstead County Industrial Fund is used to buy land and prepare it for industrial prospects. The fund is currently in need or help to finish paying for purchases and clearing of land for the new Homestead Industries.

Chairman Hays points out that in many instances individuals within a company were buying shares in addition to the company pledge. He suggested to the teams that they encourage this to insure the drive reaching its badly needed goal.

The Hempstead County Industrial Foundation has assisted seven industries with over 400 new jobs being created in the last 10 years. Now the funds are depleted and the citizens of Hope are asked to purchase more shares to insure continued growth in the decade ahead.

Forrest City Undergoes Quiet Night

By ROBERT SHAW
Associated Press Writer
FORREST CITY, Ark. (AP) — Two units of the Arkansas National Guard were pulled out of here today after the town experienced a trouble-free night Wednesday.

An aide to Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller said the Mariana and Harrisburg units of the guard would stay on duty at their home armories.

The aide also said it was possible that one of the other two guard units at the city might be pulled back later today.

Authorities reported this morning no major incidents during the night.

White pickets reappeared about 8 a.m. today in small numbers. One of them said they expected more to join the picket line later today.

Local officials said it would be decided later today whether to continue the curfew. Authorities also said that plans for deployment of the National Guard and state troopers for today would be decided later.

Guardsmen and troopers were not evident in the downtown area this morning and were not patrolling the streets.

Charles Ward of Forrest City joined the pickets and said, "We can only take so much until we start pushing back."

"They've had their rights for a long time, now we are trying to get 'burs,'" said another white man who refused to identify himself.

Another man said, "Most of the white people I've talked to think one man in a hundred won't help a 'nigger' if they want help. If they want help they can get it but when they start demanding we are going to put a stop to it."

The pickets carried signs, saying: "We demand return to law and order;" "We won't take it any longer. If our officials won't protect us, we will do it ourselves;" and "Let's tell Rockefeller to run his own business and we will run our business. We don't need his committees here."

There were also signs condemning the Forrest City Times-Herald and signs demanding the resignations of Police Chief Marvin Gunn and Mayor Robert Cope.

One white man, who would not identify himself, said, "If what they (Negroes) claim is so right for everybody, how come they object to this group wanting law and order enforced?"

The picketers said they did not represent any organization, and one said, "We started something and we want to see it through."

Police Car Hit From Behind

Two accidents were investigated in the City by police, one involving a police car driven by Officer James R. Rowe. It occurred at Walker and Third Street. The police car was hit from behind by another driven by James C. Pruden, 16, Hope.

Officers estimated about $500 damage to each vehicle. Nobody was injured. State Trooper Wallace Martin investigated and charged young Pruden with following too close.

This morning in the 1200 block of S. Main vehicles driven by Larry B. Powell of Patmos and E.E. Brooks of Hope collided with only minor damage. Officers Sinyard and Willis filed no charges.
